

John W MacLeod

John W. MacLeod was inducted into The Governor General's Curling Club in 2000, after leading a rich military and civilian career. John retired from the Canadian Forces in 1976, to accept the position as the first Executive Director of Curl Canada, which at the time was owned and operated by the Canadian Ladies Curling Association and Canadian Curling Association. In 1979, Mr. MacLeod was appointed as General Manager/Secretary of the Canadian Curling Association. In 1980, he was appointed as General Manager of the Canadian Ladies Curling Association. In 1986, Mr. MacLeod became a Honourary Life Member of the Canadian Branch of the Royal Caledonia Curling Club. Upon his retirement (1986) he became a Honourary Life Member of the Canadian Curling Association.

His family noted he was proud to be a member of The Governor General's Curling Club.