

CHANTEL HOAG

2021 Recipient, For the Love of Curling Scholarship, presented by the Governor General's Curling Club

Thanks to the support of the Governor General's Curling Club membership, Chantel continues to shine off and on the ice since being honoured with the For the Love of Curling scholarship.

RECENT HIGHLIGHTS

- Champion of the 2022 Canada West University Curling Championships with the University of Regina Cougars
- Finalist at the 2022 FISU World University Games Qualifier in Ottawa
- All-Star Second Award at the 2022 & 2023 Canada West University Curling Championships
- Finalist at the 2022 Canada Winter Games Mixed Doubles Qualifier
- Finalist at the Saskatchewan Women's Junior Provincials

LOOKING AHEAD

Chantel is teaming up with Chloe Johnston, Cara Kesslering, and Madison Sagert in her final year of junior play. The team is working hard on and off the ice in pursuit of a green jacket and the honour of representing Saskatchewan at the 2024 New Holland Canadian Junior Curling Championships.

She'll be playing with the University of Regina Cougars again this year, with a goal of reaching the 2024 U Sports/Curling Canada Curling Championships and will also be enjoying some mixed doubles play with her teammate Josh Bryden in Saskatchewan competitions.

Off the ice, Chantel is continuing to pursue her degree in Health Studies as a pre-dentistry student at the University of Regina.

THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING THE NEXT GENERATION OF PASSIONATE, TALENTED AND CARING CURLERS.
